

Giovanni Antonio Rigatti: O dolcezza incredibile

---

This madrigal on the bass of the Romanesca comes from the composer's only extant book of madrigals, published in Venice in 1636. The source here is the part-books (CANTO / ALTO / TENORE / BASSO / BASSO Continuo) of the original edition (of which the Biblioteka Uniwersytecka, Wrocław, Poland owns the only surviving copy): MVSICHE / CONCERTATE / Cioe Madrigali A 2. 3. 4. / Con Basso Continuo. / DI P. GIO: ANTONIO RIGATTI / Maestro di Capella di Vdine / Libro Primo. Opera II. / Con Licenza de Superiori & Priuilegio. / STAMPA DEL GARDANO / IN VENETIA M DC XXXVI / Apresso Bartolomeo Magni. The text borrows two ottave from the eighth canto of Cavalier Gian Battista Marino's Adone, with slight variants. The continuo part-book gives the piece in score format.

Certain orthographic particularities of the original Italian texts have been retained, but obvious errors, insignificant variants and minor inconsistencies have been eliminated. Abbreviated repetitions (ii) are tacitly written out, as are other textual abbreviations. Dashed barlines supplement the rare and irregular barlines of part-books (where they generally mark the end of a section, and often appear in the continuo part only, the barring of which is here taken over in all parts), but also the inconsistent barring of scores. All the original time signatures are retained, as well as the note values. Values that overlap the barlines (and dotted notes that cross the mid-point of a measure) are converted to tied notes. All accidentals of the source are reproduced (changed to naturals when needed), except on identical pitches immediately repeated and redundant accidentals at the octave of the key signature. Accidentals either in brackets or above the staff are editorial. The rare archaic ligatures are rendered by horizontal brackets. The "black notation" in triple time denotes a hemiola or simply a shift in the rhythmic pattern. The continuo figures are those of the source; only their placement has been tacitly standardized. Slurs indicating melismas that are beamed in our edition are not reproduced.

Bar 104 Bc Fermata missing

O dolcezza incredibile d'amore* soave piaga e diletta arsura, dove quasi Fenice incenerita,
à culla insieme il core e sepultura.
Onde da due begl'occhi alma ferita mor non morendo e'l suo morir non cura e, trafitta d'amor, sospira e langue senza duol, senza ferro e senza sangue.

Così dolce a morir l'anima impara, esca fatta all'ardor, segno a lo strale e sente in fiamma dolcemente amara per ferita mortal morte immortale.
Morte, ch'al cor salubre, ai sensi cara, non è morte, anzi è vita, anzi è natale.
Amor che la saetta e che l'accende, per più farla morir, vita le rende.

* Original: O dolcezza ineffabile infinita

O unbelievable sweetness of love*, gentle wound and delightful burning,
where the heart, as a cindered Phoenix, finds both its cradle and its tomb.
Thus the soul, wounded by two beautiful eyes, dies without dying and cares not,
and, pierced by love, sighs and languishes, with no pain, no arms and no blood.

So, sweetly, the soul learns to die,
made tinder to the fire, target to the dart,
and feels, in a sweetly bitter flame,
for a mortal wound, immortal death.
Death, healthy to the heart, dear to the senses,
that is not death, rather, is life, is birth.
Love, that darts arrows against the soul and sets it afire, to make it die and die, restores it to life.

* Original: O unspeakable and unending sweetness

Ah, Clori, ah, rabiosetta, tu mi schernisci in questa guisa!
Ahi, ferma, che fai!
Dunque così co' labri ingordi baciar fingi e poi mordi.
Mà che, saprò ben io farne vendetta!
S'avien que più ti baci, saranno i baci miei morsi e non baci!

Ah, Clori, mad Clori,
You mock me in such a way!
Ah, cease, what are you doing!
Thus, with hungry lips
you feign to kiss and then you bite.
Certainly not! I will take my revenge!
If I happen to kiss you,
my kisses will be not kisses, but bites!

O tu ch'hai così care
le mie lagrime amare,
di' perch'il pianto mio
hai sol lontan di vagheggiar desio.

Empia, se t'è sì grato
il mio piangente stato
lascia ch'un giorno almeno stretto nel grembo tuo ti pianga in seno.

O you who hold so dear
my bitter tears,
say why you long for my weeping
only when I'm far from you.

Cruel one, if you're so pleased with my weeping state
let me one day, at least,
tight in your lap, weep on your bosom.

Bacia, Lidio gentile,
ch'a te nulla si nega.
Baciami pur, ma non baciar in loco dove senza risposta inaridisca, insterilisca il bacio.
La bocca sol baciata
con bel cambio risponde.
La bocca sol de' baci vicendevoli
e dolci è vera sede.
Ogni altra parte asciutto il bacio prende,
il riceve e nol rende.

Kiss me, gentle Lidio,
for nothing is denied to you.
Kiss me, but don't kiss me where without an answer
the kiss withers and grows barren.
Only the mouth, when it is kissed, answers with a good return.
The mouth alone is the true place of the sweet returned kisses.
Any other part will take the kiss dry, it will receive it but will not give it back.

Le più belle zittelle del contado noi siam ch'i rozzi amori fuggiamo di bifolchi e di pastori.
Qui né treccia s'impresta o crin si tinge, né guancia si dipinge.
L'oro, i gigli e le rose l'alma natura di sua man vi pose.
Matutina rugiada o puro fonte o rio corrente o fiume
bagna il seno e la fronte.
E quand'il sonno ha scolorito il lume de gl'altri volti, all' hora per noi si vede impallidir l'aurora.
Né men candido è l'cor che puro il viso.
Né finto sguardo o simolato riso, né perigliosi canti
di sirena homicida
sia che prima v'alletti e poi v'ancida.
Non isdegname amanti
in fida povertà dolce tesoro,

We're the prettiest spinsters in the countryside, and we shun the uncouth loves of churls and shepherds.
Here no plait is borrowed, no hair is dyed,
no cheek is painted.
The gold, the lilies and the roses were put there by mother Nature herself.
The morning dew or the pure spring or the running stream or the river bathes the breast and the face.
And when sleep has discoloured the light Of the other faces, then we make the dawn seem pale.
Nor is the heart less pure than the face.
No false glance or feigned smile,
no perilous songs
of a murderous siren
are in us that first entice you and then kill you.
Do not scorn, O lovers,
a sweet treasure in trusted poverty, for here beauty is not sold nor bought beltà qui non si compra e non si vende.

Ma per premio d'amor amor si rende.
